

The Asylum Seekers Centre provides practical and personal support for asylum seekers living in the community.

Our services include casework, accommodation, financial relief, legal advice, employment assistance, health care and counselling, education, advocacy, food and recreational activities. We are a not-for-profit organisation and rely on grants, donations and volunteers to undertake our work.

The Asylum Seekers Centre is a place of hospitality and welcome. It is an oasis for many people, a safe place for those who have fled situations of great danger.

Getting to us
We are located in Newtown, close to Newtown Station and about 4km south west of Sydney's central business district.

By train
Catch a train to Newtown Station. Cross over King St and Enmore Rd, go down the steps and turn left into Bedford Street.

Becher House is a brightly coloured building about 250m on the right, opposite the train tracks.

By bus
Buses 423 and 426 run from Circular Quay via Central Station to Newtown Station.

When we told staff we were employing an asylum seeker, some were a little hesitant having had no experience with them.

Our employee changed that. He turned up early every day with a smile on his face and approached every task asked of him with enthusiasm.

He was a great worker. It was a great learning experience for us all.

John Watson,
Director,
Watson Buchan Surveyors.
