

BOOKS ABOUT ASYLUM & THE REFUGEE EXPERIENCE

The following books shed light on the experience of people seeking asylum. To learn more about what it means to seek asylum, invite us speak to your school, corporate or community group.

CHILDREN

Room on Our Rock by Kate & Jol Temple

The Someone New by Jill Twiss

What is a refugee by Elise Gravel

The Little Refugee by Anh and Suzanne Do

My Two Blankets by Irena Koblad and Freya Blackwood

YOUTH

The Boy at the Back of the Class by Onjali Q. Rauf

Boy Overboard by Morris Glietzman

Girl Underground by Morris Glietzman

ADULTS

No Friend but the Mountains by Behrooz Boochani (Memoir)

Sea Prayer by Khaled Hosseini (Poem)

Amnesty by Aravind Adiga (Novel)

The Ungrateful Refugee: What Immigrants Never Tell You (Autobiography)

ALL AGES

Forced to Flee: Refugee Children Drawing on their Experiences